

Media consolidation is distroyng journalism. We need fair and balanced reporting and more compitition to issure that happens.

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

This is too much power for one corporation to have. This will unfairly influence the election.

THIS IS NOT NEWS, IT'S POLITICS! You should stop this. Or at the very least require they give equal time to the opposition.

Big media is marketing news to advance a political adjenda that is in their self-interest. We need more diversity, less consolidation.

Please, for the sake of democracy, regulate these kind of things.

Thank you,

Ken Groshong